If the lagging voter will only consent to read a dozen or more pages of the Congressional Record he ought to develop an enthusiasm for Taft that would carry him safely over the election.

There is said to have been many complaints in the last presidential campaign because of the inability to get prompt shipments of campaign supplies from Chicago. It is to forestall such complaints that Mr. Hitchcock may find it necessary to have a branch in Salt complaints that Mr. Hitchcock may find it necessary to have a branch in Salt Lake City or Denver. In that event a few good husky baggage hustlers and shipping clerks will be put in charge and not a Warwick. LADY OF THE OLD REGIME DIES IN LOS ANGELES

In Los Angeles on July 14 there passed away a lady of the old regime, Madame Louise Philomene Chouteau of St. Louis, whose name is closely linked with the historic past in the early ex-ploration and settlement of this coun-

She was the daughter-in-law of Colo-She was the daughter-in-law of Colonel Pierre Auguste Chonteau, the adventurous French gentleman and pioneer, a loval subject of Louis the XVI, who founded the city of St. Louis Mo. February 15, 1764, and fortified and defended it against American, Spanish and Indian aggression, until it became American territory by reason of the Louisiann purchase in 1804.

Her husband, Pierre Sylvestre Chouteau, was most prominent in the city's affairs during its new regime as an American city, after the Louisiana purchase.

She was the granddaughter of Cap tain Eugenio Sylvestre Alvirez of the Spanish army, who came to this country in 1770 as military quartermaster to the King of Spain, at the time of the transfer of upper Louisiana to the Spanish government.

Her brothers and relatives were adventurous pioneers, most prominent in early exploration, after the Louisiana settlement, penetrating to the head-waters of the Columbia river with the first expedition into this wilderness, after the cession. Madame Chouteau's after the cession. Madame Chouteau's historic residence, on the bluff over-looking the Mississippi in St. Louis, was always a homing station for the recuperation of these adventurous male spirits, in whose deeds she gloried.

In her old-fashioned diary and notebook, entitled, "A Record of the Living and the Dead," are stored many letters and documents of these brave men of the long ago to whom she was so loyal.

Her relatives from afar, as a tribute to her family loyalty, gathered to pay respect to the dead. Her funeral was attended by her daughter, Mrs. L. Y. Loring, widow of Major Loring, U. S. Army; her son, W. G. Chouteau, and her grandchildren, Mrs. F. Nelson Wright and First Lieutenant Sylvester Chouteau Loring, U. S. Army, stationed at Fort Douglas, and others, who made hasty journeys to reach Los Angeles as a tribute of affection.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The coat tailors, who are organized as the Brotherhood of Tailors, have decided to have no general strike this year, while the cloak makers, it is announced, are preparing for their first general strike in fourteen years. The cloak makers broke away some time ago from the United Garment Workers of America, to which the coat tailors belong, and sixty per cent of them are long, and sixty per cent of them are Socialists.

Abraham Rosenberg, president of the International Women's Garment Work-ers' union, with which the cloak makers union is affiliated, says that the strike will affect from 25,000 to 30,000 work-ers, including about 10,000 women. 'Last year,' he said, "they were earning from $18 to $20 a week, and now they are making from $7 to $8 a week. Some of them are making far less, and the women average $3 and $4 a week. About sixty-five per cent of the cloak makers are working, some on whole and some on part time
